

I'm sorry
(words and music Lee Maddeford)

what in life that is never said is rarely understood I'm sorry, I'm sorry

and if my silence hurts you now I never hoped it would forgive me, forgive me

I never really wanted to share I never really wanted to give I never really wanted to care
I never really wanted to live until you came into my life

it's hard to hear the truth from you when truth can be unkind
I'm sorry, I'm sorry

REFRAIN

I'm going down on my knees
I'm reaching into your heart
You know I want you to stay
I couldn't stand us apart
I'm looking up to the skies I'm reaching out to the sea you know I fear losing you now that you're here in my life

you know it's hard to change my ways but for you I would try forgive me, forgive me
