

Memories

(words and music Lee Maddeford)

look at my hands
I'm trying to reach you look at my eyes
reaching to see you
look at my heart
the feelings that I hold

can't you forget
all of the lies now
can't you forget
the nights that you cried now try to remember
when we were so in love

REFRAIN

days that we walked arm in arm talks of what could be tell me that you won't forget all of the memories

where will I go
what will I do now
feeling so low
feeling so blue now
all that I want
is to see you again

alone in the night
remember carresses
alone in the night
forget my excesses
I try to remember
when we were so in love
