

mirror mirror (words and music Lee Maddeford) everybody thinks that I'm a maniac but I don't care they don't really understand cause when I look into that magic looking glass it's so assuring that I know just where I stand

I don't think about what all the people say it's too confusing for my brain it doesn't matter what you got inside your head if on the outside you can see that you are sane

REFRAIN

mirror mirror on the wall oh you've got me so enthralled with you
mirror mirror on the wall and I can see it in your eyes that you love me too got no time to look at all the people passing by got no time to see them stare all I ever really care about is what the wind and the rain are doing to my hair

when I'm talking down the street I turn my head just to get a little look such a razzle-dazzle handsome boy I think of all the girls how they're dangling on the hook

REFRAIN

(he's just a lonely man who tries to hide his feelings
he doesn't understand that life has other meanings too)