

October skies
(words and music Lee Maddeford) october skies are in my mind I try to see the reasons try to read between the lies nobody ever told me that the love you held inside for me was cold what can I do what can I say when all of my emotions try to hold my mind at bay I never thought a simple contradiction could destroy the love we made

REFRAIN
but this old world will keep spinning around with or without the love that I held for the sound of your voice the look in your eyes the touch of your heart and if the time keeps moving along

I will wait for the day when I hear the song that will bring you back bring you back in my life the colors slide between the shade the autumn light cuts like a knife a double-sided blade I walk into the silence just to try to feel the memory of your eyes
