

She called me darling (words John Mckillop/Lee Maddeford music Lee Maddeford)

She called me darling in the moonlight
She called me baby in my bed
She called me honey when the lights went low
You know i never once believed a word she said

She called me sweetie in the morning
She even called me poopsie-pie
She said i love it when you do that to me
And when i wouldn't do it she would cry

I thought that i had her
In the palm of my hands
But we all get fooled now and then

And every afternnoon we'd go for a walk
She'd hold my hand and smile at me
She'd tell me all those things i love to hear
And my little heart went tweet tweet tweet

I thought that i had her
In the palm of my hands
But we all get fooled now and then

I thought that she loved me i thought that she cared for me
I never thought that she would break my heart
I couldn't imagine a life without her, no,
But in fact it's not that hard

And now i walk the streets all by myself
I whisper a tune into the air
I smile at all the ladies walking by Just to show them that i don't care

And then the other night when i was out
Just walking in the park under the moon
Not bothering to bother what i thought about
Well it happened not a moment too soon

She had pretty green eyes that shined
And pretty red hair upon her head
And ruby lips that whispered in my ears
But you know i won't you know i won't you know i won't believe a word she says.
